There is a visitor parking lot across from the library. To get to our meeting room, enter the library through the main entrance. Go past the circulation desk and go down the main staircase to the lower level. Turn right past the information commons and through the double doors. We are meeting in the Smith Conference Room (Room 107.2). Lunch will be just outside the room.

There is also GO service from Toronto Union Station. There is a train to Oshawa with a transfer to a bus to Peterborough. You only need a single ticket and the bus is waiting when the train arrives in Oshawa. On Saturday mornings, train departures are at 7:13 a.m. or 10:13 a.m. with the bus arriving on Trent campus at 9:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., respectively. The bus stop is on the east bank of the campus so you will need to cross the bridge to get to the library.

Return buses leave campus at 6:10 p.m. and 10:10 p.m. (or the downtown bus terminal 15 minutes later.) There is also Sunday service for anyone who plans to stay overnight.

Recommended Restaurants

Downtown Peterborough has a fairly extensive assortment of eclectic restaurants, especially on Hunter Street. Here are a few recommended places to eat:

The Olde Stone Brewery

Brewpub with very decent gastropub food. A favourite of Trent students and faculty.
George St. N.

Hot Belly Mama's

Cajun/Creole food (next door to The Olde Stone Brewery)
380 George St. N.

St. Veronus

Extensive selection of Belgian beers with interesting Belgian-style food as well.
Hunter St. W.

Cosmic Charlie's

Place looks like it was furnished from a yard sale but the Thai food is outstanding!
Charlotte St.

Brio Gusto

Mediterranean dishes and a great wine list. Only place in the Kawarthas with a "Wine Spectator" designation
182 Charlotte St.

Parkhill on Hunter
Upscale Mediterranean/California-fusion restaurant
Hunter St. W.

38 Degrees
Very good regional cuisine with local ingredients
375 Water St.

Hoshi
Japanese/Korean with a decent sushi bar
172 Charlotte St.

Matsu Sushi
Another Japanese/Korean place with a sushi bar. Better than Hoshi but located in “East City”, across the river from downtown.
107 Hunter St. E.

La Hacienda
The décor is nothing to get excited about but this is a terrific, authentic Mexican restaurant. Forget Mexicali Rosa’s and don’t even think about Taco Bell!
190 Hunter St. W.

Karma’s Café
Very good South Asian cuisine. Bills itself as “Himalayan” but includes a wide range of Asian cuisines, including Thai.
217 Hunter St. W.

Elements
Spanish-inspired regional cuisine, tapas
140 King St.

The Shish-Kabob Hut
Decent Greek restaurant
220 King St.

Curry Village
Part of a small chain but the Indian food is quite good
306 George St. N.

The Night Kitchen
Excellent selection of gourmet pizzas. Take-out mainly, but they do have a few tables.
229 Hunter St. W.

For coffee, desserts and light snacks:

Black Honey
221 Hunter St. W.

Dreams of Beans
138 Hunter St. W.

Haaselton's
394 George St. N.
