

JOHN URBASAustralian National UniversityProblems involving prescribed gradient image*

I will describe recent work on the existence of convex solutions to Hessian and curvature equations having prescribed gradient image. The special case of Monge-Ampère equations arises in mass transportation problems with a quadratic cost and has been studied previously.