

LOUKAS GRAFAKOS
University of Missouri at Columbia

Rough and rougher singular integrals

This talk focuses on properties of rough multilinear singular integrals of Calderón-Zygmund type and other ones that may not have the smoothness and decay to fall under the scheme of a general theory. Such operators include the commutators of Calderón, multilinear multipliers given by characteristic functions of sets, and rough homogeneous singular integrals.