In this talk, we present and characterize two differents operator algebras that both contains the commutant associated to an operator A. The existence of invariant subspaces for these operator algebras for certain class of operators will be shown.