

I shall discuss two natural extremal problems in geometric function theory involving finite Blaschke products as well as the sad story of my failure at determining the exact degree of these finite Blaschke products.