In the talk a concept of pluripolar hulls of pluripolar sets will be introduced and discussed. In the case the pluripolar sets are graphs of holomorphic functions the notion may be seen as a generalization of the analytic continuation. The special case of graphs of Blaschke products will be presented in more details. Known results and open questions on Blaschke products will be presented.